The amendment filed 19 April 2010 is acknowledged and has been entered. Claims 2-7, 9-12, 14-16, 18-20, 22-24, and 30-44 have been cancelled. Claims 1, 8, 13, 17, 21, 25-29, and 45-52 remain in the case.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 103 which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

(c) Subject matter developed by another person, which qualifies as prior art only under one or more subsections (e), (f) and (g) of section 102 of this title, shall not preclude patentability under this section where the subject matter and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. § 103, the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 C.F.R. § 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of potential 35 U.S.C. § 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. § 103.

Claims 1, 8, 13, 17, 21, and 25-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over the combined teachings of Cooper et al. (Anal. Biochem. 277: 196, 2000), Niemeyer et al. (Anal. Biochem. 268: 54, 1999), and Nikiforov et al. (US 5,610,287) for reasons of record in the prior rejection of the similar subject matter of these claims.

Claims 45-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over the combined teachings of Pieken et al. (US 7,427,678), Vary (Clin. Chem. 38: 687, 1992), and Nikiforov et al. (US 5,610,287) for reasons of record in the prior rejection of the similar subject matter of these claims.

Applicant's arguments filed 19 April 2010 have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986). In this regard, and notwithstanding applicant's assertions to the contrary, the disclosure of Nikiforov et al. clearly teaches alternatives for immobilization of oligonucleotides to a negatively charged surface (see col. 7) as set forth in the rejection of record and is not relied upon for teaching binding specifically to a negatively charged hydrogel. The argument is not found persuasive for the reasons of record in view of Cooper et al. or Niemeyer et al. or Pieken et al. for their teachings of immobilization of oligonucleotides via biotinylation or covalently to the same surface as instantly disclosed and claimed.

Notwithstanding applicant's assertions to the contrary, applicant's amendments have not obviated rejections under this statute for the reasons set forth above.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a).

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST REPLY IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL

AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
